

Panama, January 24, 2023

Distinguished Leader,

I am pleased to invite you to participate in the important Parliamentary Forum of Intelligence and Security co-organized by the Latin American and Caribbean Parliament (PARLATINO), Congressman Robert Pittenger, Heritage Foundation and the Caribbean, Bermuda and Latin America Crime Stoppers organization, which will take place on February 23 and 24 of this year, at the headquarters of our regional parliamentary body in the city of Panama.

We encourage you to join Parliamentarians, experts, government officials, international organizations, civil society and representatives from the private sector from across the region and the world for this strategic dialogue regarding transnational organized crime, including illicit finance, illicit trade and human trafficking, maritime defense and border security, the transformational impact complex and sophisticated technologies are having on our security, and appropriate strategies for mitigating cybersecurity threats on critical infrastructure.

The leadership of PARALTINO stands strategic to strengthen the interparliamentary alliance to consolidate peace, security and the international and regional legal order. We are organizing parliamentary delegations from the 23 member countries to attend the forum and your assistance and participation in this dialogue is essential.

To confirm your attendance or make further enquiries, please contact Mr. Lucas Rojas at lucas@pi-sf.com.

Sincerely,

SILVIA GIACOPPO

President of the Latin American and Caribbean Parliament
